The students for this activity are BA Part I (Optional English). Our students had done full efforts towards teaching the students of primary school. They had made the charts, cardboard box filled with letters and card board painting as teaching aids, the primary school students enjoyed the whole teaching process of our students.

Our students of optional English have got very good experience of teaching and learning. The activity was successful. The team is very much great full to the principal of the college, Prof.U.R Rajput for his enthusiastic support to the team to conduct such an activity.

Agricultural biotechnology [Agri-tech]

Introduction to Agricultural Biotechnology

Agricultural Biotechnology is the use of new scientific techniques based on our understanding of DNA to improve crops & livestock that are not possible with conventional breeding alone.

Scientific tools & techniques in Agricultural Biotechnology

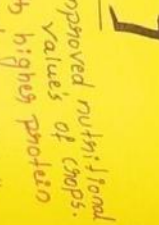

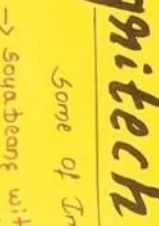

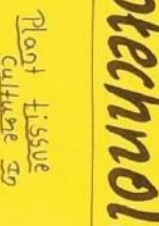

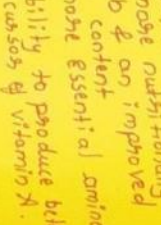

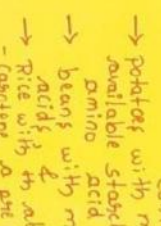

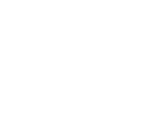

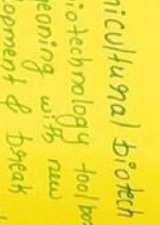

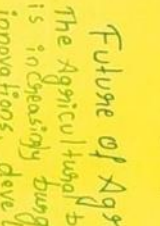

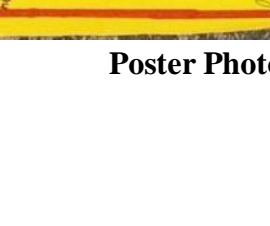

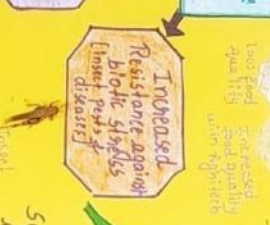

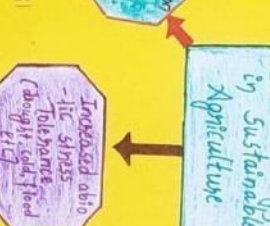

- Genetic Engineering (Recombinant DNA)
- Molecular markers
- Molecular diagnostics
- Tissue culture
- Traditional breeding
- Mutagenesis
- Polyploidy
- Protoplast fusion
- RNA interference
- Transgenics
- Plant Breeding
- Vaccines etc.

Why is agricultural biotechnology important?

In a world where 800 million people living mostly in rural areas, go hungry every day, food demand is set to double in the next 30 years & arable land is limited, advances in agriculture are critical if we are to reduce hunger & promote growth & development in a socially acceptable & environmentally sustainable way.

I am so Hungry!

Future of Agricultural Biotech
The Agricultural biotechnology tool box is increasing burgeoning with new innovations, development & breakthroughs offering even more exciting solutions to some of the world's biggest problems.

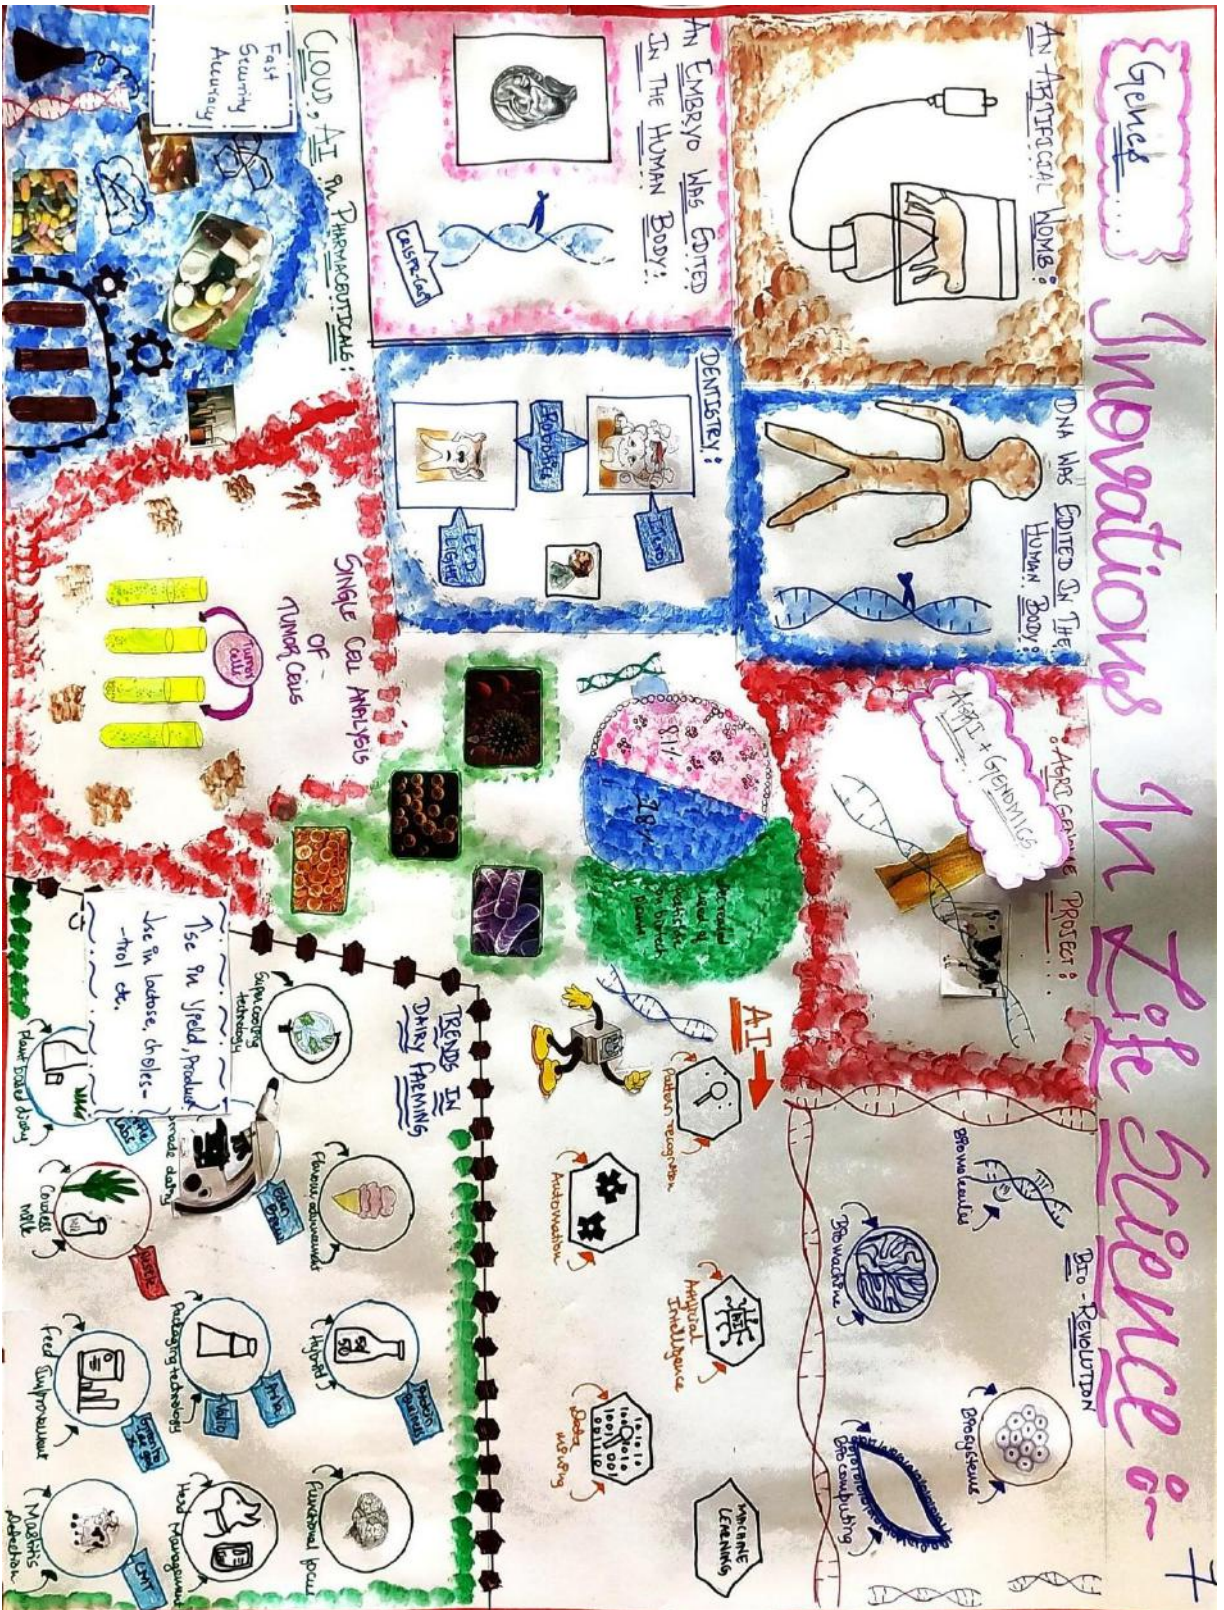

Conclusion

Some of the procedures & processes that are adapted by agricultural biotechnology are against nature & natural laws. In the light of above consideration it is necessary that the tools of biotechnology should be used properly and only for beneficial purposes.

Place	Vitthal Mandir, Siddapurawadi
No. of participants	56

Summary of the Proceedings	 Shri Sudhir Kotiwale, Assistant Professor of Political Science was the speaker. Our democracy is a precious gift that we have inherited, and it is our responsibility to safeguard and nurture it, he said. He added voting is the cornerstone of democracy. It is the right and the privilege of every eligible citizen to cast their ballot and participate in the democratic process. It is a way for us to exercise our power and influence the decisions that affect our lives. When we vote, we are not just choosing a candidate or a party, we are choosing the future of our country. We are deciding on the policies that will shape our society, the laws that will govern us, and the leaders who will represent us. Our vote is our voice, and it is our duty to use it wisely. We must educate ourselves about the issues, the candidates, and the parties, and we must make an informed decision. We must also remember that our vote is not just a personal choice, but a collective responsibility. Dr. B. G. Kulakarni was the president for the function gave presidential remarks - In a democracy, every vote counts. It is not just the popular vote that matters, but every single vote. Our democracy is built on the principle of one person, one vote, and we must respect that principle. The program was started with NSS song by Sakshata and team followed by welcome address and guest introduction by NSS volunteer Malappa. Ashish Kambale proposed vote of thanks. Gram panchayat members, volunteers and villagers were present.

Title of the Programme	Special Lecture on Conservation of Natural Resources
Date and time	10 th June, 2022
Place	Vitthal Mandir, Siddapurawadi
No. of participants	56
Objectives	To suggest measures for conservation of natural resources To create awareness about conservation of natural resources. To promote use of renewable energy sources.
Summary of the Proceedings	To make aware the villagers of adopted village - Siddapurwadi, about importance of conservation of natural resources NSS unit has arranged a special lecture. Shri S. M. Patil, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, was the speaker and Dr. Lakshmikantha Nayaka TO presided over the function. Speaker Shri S. M. Patil in his speech - Natural resources form a vital component of a country's economy. Natural resources are resources provided to us by nature. Natural resources include sunlight, air, water, and minerals. Natural resources must be conserved so that they can be used for a longer period. The importance of conserving natural resources has been repeatedly emphasized. He had suggested some measures to protect natural resources - Don't uproot the trees as far as possible while building your house. Plant a fast-growing native ground cover in disturbed areas. Compost your kitchen waste and use it to fertilize your garden or flower pots. Irrigate the plants with a gentle flow of water to avoid washing away the soil. If you own agricultural land, avoid over-irrigating it without proper drainage to avoid water logging and Stalinization. Use mixed cropping to avoid depletion of specific soil nutrients. Dr. Lakshmikantha Nayaka TO has highlighted the measures for conservation of natural resources. The program was started with innovation song by Jyoti Mayyannavar and team followed by welcome address and guest introduction by NSS Aishwarya Kurani. Vidya Pujari proposed vote of thanks. Gram panchayat members and villagers were present.

Title of the Programme	Seed Sowing Activity
Date and time	7 th June, 2022
Place	Outskirts of Chikodi
No. of participants	70
Objectives	To make volunteers aware about eco system. To encourage students to plant trees. To give knowledge about importance of trees in protection of environment.
Summary of the Proceedings	 NSS (National Service Scheme) volunteers participated in a seed sowing activity organized by the forest department in the Chikodi area. Seed sowing is a valuable environmental initiative that contributes to reforestation and biodiversity conservation. In such activities, volunteers typically learn about the importance of seed sowing, the types of seeds being planted, and the ecological impact of the initiative. Seed balls, also known as seed bombs, are an interesting and effective way to distribute seeds. These are small balls made of a mixture of clay, compost, and seeds. The seed balls protect the seeds from pests and harsh environmental conditions, providing them with a better chance of germination and growth. Participating in such activities not only helps in environmental conservation but also raises awareness among the volunteers and the community about the significance of sustainable practices and the role of trees in maintaining a healthy ecosystem. Students have thrown the seed balls outskirt the Chikodi city. Forest officer Chandrakant had given importation about the seed throwing activity and he appreciated the NSS volunteers for their active participation in the social cause.
