LEARNING OUTCOMES (2020-21)

Outcomes are what learners should be able to do or have done at the end of the programme or course.

Outcomes are similar to aims but are more focused on end results and often describe what actually happened rather than what the teacher intends to happen.

- LO₁: Students will have rich experiences with language so that they become fluent and thoughtful users of it and more aware of its significance in their lives.
- LO₂: It develops a range of literacy and oral skills in a variety of areas, personal, social, and cultural.
- LO₃: Students develop a wide range of skills and concepts. These will allow them to interpret and enjoy a range of material so that they become independent learners who can operate independently in the world.
- LO₄: They learn accuracy and appropriateness in language use both oral and written: develop knowledge of linguistic structures, including grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
- LO₅: They inculcate skills like critical thinking as well as creative: analysis, reasoning and evaluation.
